A previous Moor Street Night Market event.

Moor Street Night Market is back!

THIS Friday (July 29) sees the return of Ormskirk's much loved Moor Street Night Market, with local businesses coming together to offer a fun evening of entertainment, food and drink for visitors to the town centre.

The first night market launched in 2017 and was hugely popular with visitors from the start. Held on the last Friday of each month, the market offers a great selection of street food and drinks, alongside live entertainment, and is organised and run by a number of Ormskirk's own businesses.

Dave Speak, manager of The Cricketers in Ormskirk said: "Moor Street Night Market is a great collaboration between several Ormskirk businesses, including The Cricketers, Tap Room No 12, Mylo & Co, Styles and Holborn Beer and Wines.

"Our motivation is to showcase the town and its burgeoning food and drink scene and bring together residents from Ormskirk and the surrounding towns and villages for a regular celebration of great food, great drinks, and great music.

"There's no need to travel into Liverpool or elsewhere when this event is on your doorstep, so stick the Night Market on your calendar for the last Friday of every month from May to September!"

FINANCIAL CRISIS LEAVES FUTURE OF 'THE CIVIC' IN DOUBT

Historic venue in urgent need of funds as it faces escalating running costs

Report by Danielle Thompson

AN appeal has been launched to raise funds to help The Civic venue in Ormskirk - which is facing a financial crisis.

The former Ormskirk Civic Hall, which opened in 1899, is regarded as one of the town's most treasured assets.

The venue, now called The Civic, faced closure in 2016 - but the community rallied round to save it.

The Southport Road building, which is now run by a group known as 'The Civvies' has since become a 'hive of activity' and is used by many community and sports groups.

But it now faces an uncertain future once again due to escalating costs and an appeal has been launched by 'The Civvies' to raise funds to keep the popular facility open.

A spokesperson for 'The Civvies' said: "Six and a half years ago, the community of Ormskirk nearly lost one of its most treasured assets.

The Civic building is a popular venue for community events - but it is facing escalating running costs

"Ormskirk Civic Hall had been the heart of our community since 1899 and in 2016, the new directors brought our community together to save The Civic. Once again, it became a hive of activity and an integral part of our town, providing opportunities for the arts, sports, special events and more.

"Then Covid hit and we were worried we might not make it through. But we did. We survived to tell the tale and we were looking forward to a bright future.

"Little did we know that we were about to hit a second hurdle, in the form of a financial crisis.

"We are acutely aware that this impacts every

Lauren Pendleton-Nash has followed in the footsteps of her mum, Caroline, and grandma, Margaret Keeping it in the family!

THREE generations of one family have celebrated the same achievement after graduating from Edge Hill University.

Lauren Pendleton-Nash has followed in the footsteps of her mum, Caroline, and grandma, Margaret, in studying at the university – while her younger sister Charlotte, will begin her studies at the Ormskirk university in September, continuing the family tradition.

Lauren, who studied BA (Hons) Sports Management and Coaching, said: “My grandma and my mum have been such inspirations to me and it means a lot that we’ve all shared the experience of studying at the same university.”

After graduating, Lauren will be reuniting with her mum and moving to Dubai where she has got a job working as a football coach in schools.

Caroline graduated in 2005 after studying BA (Hons) Children’s Development and Learning with QTS and in 2017, completed her MA Education (Educational Leadership) degree, while Margaret studied History and Communications. Charlotte will be studying BA (Hons) Secondary English Education with QTS.

● A mum and her son graduated from Edge Hill together on the same day

Ben Jones, 24, studied Ecology and Conservation at Edge Hill University, while his mum, 48-year-old Gail Ennis, enrolled on a Childhood Youth and Criminology course.

They both graduated after three years at Edge Hill.

Gail, from Southport, said when she first told Ben she was going to the same university, he ‘wasn’t happy at all!’

“Luckily for us it worked out just fine.”

‘Alternative format’ now being looked at to replace cancelled Motorfest event, say organisers AINTREE Circuit Club say it is hoping to stage an alternative event to the cancelled Motorfest.

The Champion revealed last week how this year’s event had been scrapped following a fall-out between the club, West Lancashire Borough Council and Lancashire County Council.

The popular event was due to have taken place on Sunday, August 28 after a two year absence caused by the pandemic.

But in a shock about-turn, Aintree Circuit Club pulled its support blaming both local authorities for ‘continuing complications and unnecessary delays’ to organising this year’s show.

The borough council’s ruling Labour

group disputed the club’s version of events saying ACC had ‘consistently refused to provide full costings’ and ‘would not spend any of its substantial bank balance to cover the cost of the event this year - insisting instead that the council pay for it’.

Cllr Adam Yates, cabinet member for finance and economic regeneration, said: “It is a shame that the Motorfest event will not take place this year but we cannot allow the council to be held to ransom by a private organisation that wants the council to fund its profit-making every year.

“Aintree Circuit Club has been clear that the money made from Motorfest funds its activities for the rest of the year, yet it refuses to declare, or share, its profits.”

No sooner had the Champion gone to press with the story, Aintree Circuit Club contacted us to say it is now hoping to stage an alternative event in Ormskirk.

A statement on the Ormskirk Motorfest website, reads how the group are “exploring options for an alternative format that will not require the use of public land or road closures to host the event or rely on support from WLBC.”

This new event could be staged on Monday, August 29.

Children can now celebrate pre-school 'graduation' again

AFTER two years of not being able to hold a graduation ceremony for their pre school children, this year staff at Portico Kindergarten in Aughton held not one but two!

Jane Waterson, nursery manger said: "We are a pre school and nursery based in the grounds of Aughton Town Green Primary School.

"After two years without being able to hold graduation ceremonies, we made this year's the best!

"Kindly, the team at Morrison's donated a healthy selection of fruit to support us with the celebration.

"As a nursery we have been baking once a week and delivering our baked goods to local businesses and our neighbours to try and make everyone smile."

Police granted new powers to prevent Pimbo 'car meets'

Report by Henry James

POLICE have been given extra powers in a bid to clamp down on the 'car meets' which have been taking place in and near to Skelmersdale.

There has recently been a big increase in pre-arranged car meets taking place at the Pimbo Industrial Estate, often with more than 300 vehicles taking part.

The car meets are arranged in secret, online and happen without prior warning, making them difficult to pre-empt and to police.

West Lancashire Borough Council has now unanimously backed a move to give police powers to impose a Public Space Protection Order.

The use of PSPOs is considered to be the best way of preventing future problems locally and has been adopted as best practice in other local authorities where similar problems exist.

A PSPO gives police the power to act quickly to stop the gatherings of car cruisers and racers who are likely to cause nuisance or distress to residents and businesses.

Councillor Gareth Dowling, deputy leader of the council and cabinet member for community safety, said: "The council sought to take decisive action over these unauthorised meetings – the time has now come to put a stop to them.

"Residents and businesses have endured the significant impacts these gatherings of performance cars have had and we hope this news will bring them some relief.

"Thank you to our partners in Lancashire Constabulary who have been met with hostility by 'racegoers' using our borough as a dangerous racetrack.

"We will continue to work together to see these car meets stopped for good."

Chief Inspector Chris Abbott of West Lancashire Neighbourhood Police added: "We have listened to feedback from residents on how they feel about these gatherings and are committed to working with our partners to combat matters of this nature.

"Car meets such as these can impact people's quality of life, cause distress to residents often to the point where they don't feel safe in the area they live.

"Tackling nuisance such as this is a priority and following the implementation of this PSPO we will ensure action is taken and continue to reassure the public."

Public Spaces Protection Orders aim to prevent excessive noise, danger to road users and pedestrians, risk of damage to private property, litter and any nuisance caused to any other person.

West Lancashire MP Rosie Cooper has welcomed the move. In October 2021, the MP raised concerns with the police about drag racing gatherings in Pimbo, asking what could be done to put a stop to them before someone was seriously hurt. The police confirmed at the time that they were applying to the council for a 'Public Space Protection Order' to make such gatherings an offence and put a stop to them.

Ms Cooper said: "Whilst it is frustrating that it took so long for this PSPO to be issued, I am glad the authorities now have the powers necessary to really crack down on this illegal car racing.

"We need to continue to be proactive in fighting anti-social behaviour, especially in situations like this where there is a serious risk to others."

member of our community and, as such, events are being cancelled last minute. Our costs are rising rapidly and if we don't respond to this situation quickly, then our future might not be as bright.

"It now costs roughly £5,000 per month to run the building - compared to £2,500 a month in 2016! So we are asking, once again, for your help, please.

"If any of our supporters are in a position to donate, whether it be a few pounds or more, you will be helping us to save this amazing community asset for the future generations.

"Thank you, from the bottom of our hearts."

The venue was originally built as a drill hall in 1899 but was regularly used as a venue for dances, concerts and theatrical performances.

It was taken over by the council in the 1960s to be used as a civic centre.

'The Civvies' say that they want the venue to remain "a central part of Ormskirk's community."

To donate to the appeal go to justgiving.com and search for, 'We are raising £3,000 to save The Civic.'

Speed cameras set to be installed at accident blackspots

Traffic measures will be introduced at 'end of November'

Report by Henry James

OFFICERS at Lancashire County Council say work on installing a red light and speed cameras at two accident blackspots in Ormskirk will "hopefully" take place in November.

The cameras will be placed at the Five Ways and Hayfield Road junctions on the A59 to improve safety following a number of serious collisions after people had run the lights.

Red light cameras detect vehicles which pass through lights after they've turned red by using sensors or ground loops in the road.

Ormskirk County Councillor Nikki Hennessy wrote to county council officers requesting an update on the scheme.

In a response, the county council say a company called Jenoptik will carry out the work in November.

A spokesperson said: "We have managed to get through all the procurement process and Jenoptik will be installing their radar based system at these junctions."

"Quite a lot of detailed design has been needed given the number of cameras that will be installed, it looks like this will be nine in total, and the various legal requirements that have to be considered in regards to the placing of the cameras etc. There are also various Home Office requirements which also need to be met."

Councillors Adam Yates, Nikki Hennessy and Gareth Dowling in Ormskirk near where the cameras will be installed

"The police have been heavily involved in this given that we need to make sure there are no technicalities which might be exploited by some who will fall foul of the cameras."

"I don't want to make promises that I am not certain of at this point in time, but hopefully toward the end of November works will be under way."

Councillor Hennessy added on her social media page: "I am sure there will be a media campaign to inform road users of the installation."

Derelict building goes up in flames

FIRE crews put out a blaze in the early hours of Monday, July 25 at a derelict building in Skelmersdale.

Four fire engines from Skelmersdale and Wigan attended the site on Gillibrands Road Aa 2.45am.

Firefighters wore breathing apparatus and used two hose reel jets to extinguish the fire.

Crews were in attendance for one hour and thirty minutes.

Adoption campaign targets parents for 'longest wait' children

AN adoption campaign has been launched to find parents for children in Lancashire who face the greatest delays in finding a permanent home.

'A Life Less Ordinary' is being run by You Can Adopt and supported locally by Adoption Lancashire and Blackpool.

The campaign aims to find the right adopters for specific groups of children that face the greatest delays in finding a home.

These include children aged five or over, children with additional and/or complex needs, brother and sister groups, and those from an ethnic minority background.

The most recent figures show that children from these groups represent 63% of the 270 children currently waiting to be placed with a family in the North West. A further 100 children from these groups in the North West have been waiting for 18 months or longer to be placed.

Victoria Gent, chair of adoption Lancashire and Blackpool, said: "It's absolutely vital we find loving homes for children who have been waiting to be adopted for longer."

Skem United forced to leave home ground after pitch fails 'bounce test'

Report by Tom Martin

SKELMERSDALE United will have to play their 'home' matches at Burscough FC's stadium after the pitch at its JMO Sports Park failed a 'FIFA Bounce Test'.

Skem will now kick off the 2022/23 season by playing their home matches at the Community Ground, off Bobby Langton Way, after agreeing to groundshare with Burscough FC.

The switch of home venues so late in the pre-season calendar is far from ideal for the club as it prepares for its first campaign back in the Northern Premier League West after winning promotion last season.

Gordon Johnson, who recently took over as chairman at Skem, hopes the move will only be a temporary measure and said they could return to JMO Sports Park at some point during the new season.

Mr Johnson said "issues were raised" with the pitch back in April and how it would need "remedial work" in order to pass the FIFA Bounce Test.

The FIFA Bounce Test is when a ball is released from a height of two meters and the height of its rebound from the surface is calculated.

This is a specific requirement for all clubs playing at Step 6 and above in the football pyramid and Skem were told by the FA and the Northern Premier League that this needed to be addressed by July 31.

Mr Johnson said because the club are only tenants on the ground, the provision of such work is the responsibility of the landlords - JMO Sports

Club will have to play at Burscough FC's stadium following FIFA setback

Park.

He said: "The club were given numerous reassurances by JMO Sports that the required remedial work and testing would be completed within the required timescales, but as part of the agreement with the football authorities we were instructed that an appropriate groundshare agreement should also be put in place to cover any unforeseen circumstances."

"Despite numerous assurances given to our club by JMO Sports the remedial pitch repair work has never been started and the pitch will not be ready for certification ahead of our first home game of the season versus Padiham FC in the FA Cup.

"Agreement has been reached to activate our groundshare agreement with Burscough FC, to whom we are eternally thankful too, as it now allows the club to start our 140th season on August 6."

He added: "As a club we can only apologise to each and every one of our loyal supporters and fan base which has steadily grown again since our return to the town two seasons ago."

"Please bear with us and continue to support the team."

"I can categorically assure you that the club over the last three months has been doing everything possible to prevent the scenario we have ended up in occurring but have been unable to influence the progression of much needed pitch work at the JMO Sports Park ground."

Officers invited to bravery awards for rescuing man from a burning building

TWO Lancashire Police officers attended The National Police Bravery Awards in London, having rescued a man from a burning building in Skelmersdale.

Police had been called in the early hours of April 4, 2021, with officers receiving information a man was inside a ground flat with smoke seen coming from the property.

Given the danger to the homeowner and ignoring their own safety, PC Wheeler took off his body armour and forced his way inside through a small window. PC Wheeler found a chip pan well alight on a lit stove. He removed the pan, putting the fire out and turning off the cooker.

He then opened the front door and having taken a breath, re-entered the address with PC Rogers-Thomas to search for the man. In the living room the homeowner was found asleep, with the officers pulling him to safety. The pair then returned to the property and searched the premises - thankfully nobody else was found inside.

Lancashire Police, said, "the brave and selfless actions of the officers saved the life of the householder and prevented a potentially catastrophic outcome for other residents in the block of flats."

"We are very proud of our officers, who went beyond the call of duty in saving a man's life."

Chief Constable Chris Rowley, of Lancashire Constabulary, added: "We are incredibly proud of Paul and Simon."

Pupils enjoy their own Commonwealth Games!

YOUNGSTERS at a primary school enjoyed community sessions and sporty fun as they celebrated the upcoming Commonwealth Games last week.

Schoolchildren at Woodland Primary School in Birch Green took part in a range of sports ahead of the Commonwealth Games - which are due to be held in Birmingham at the end of this month - including badminton, judo, athletics, netball, cycling and rhythmic gymnastics.

Teacher Vicky Beeley said: "Children enjoyed sessions in the community as well, visiting The Village Pub in Old Skem to play Crown Green Bowls with some senior members of Scouts Active Support Unit (SASU).

"All of the children experienced ABC Boxing Gym in Birch Green and our youngest children from Nursery to Year 2 went swimming at Nye Bevan.

"We introduced a range of new sporting opportunities, fencing and karate, as well as trying to get to the top of our mobile climbing wall.

"We chose another country from the Commonwealth to learn about; South Africa.

"It was a huge success and the week culminated in a colourful closing ceremony where all the children, in their four teams, dressed up and celebrated what children had achieved during the week."

Council's Annual Report 'rejected' by councillors at meeting for first time

Local authority claims 'feedback is noted' after criticism

Report by Danielle Thompson

AN ORMSKIRK Councillor has claimed that the borough council's rejected annual report 'didn't reflect reality' - but the authority refute the claims.

West Lancashire Borough Councillors rejected the Council Plan Annual Report at the July council meeting last week by 26 votes to 24.

This is the first time the Annual Plan Report has been rejected.

The report is described by the council as an "annual review" of the "achievements and progress" made by the local authority.

It serves as a 'summary' of the previous 12 months, rather than an in-depth report.

The annual report is also published on the council's website.

However, some councillors were less than impressed with the report.

OWL Councillor Adrian Owens said: "There was criticism by councillors of key omissions from the report.

"I highlighted a catalogue of concerns ranging from poor staff morale; high staff turnover; auditor concerns over financial controls on projects; and delayed approval of the annual accounts. I also highlighted the further delays to the Local Plan Process caused by almost all staff in the Planning Policy section leaving the council.

"I've been a councillor for 23 years. Never in that time have I had council staff approach me on a confidential basis - whistleblowers if you will, until this year.

"This year it happened twice. I advised use of the formal whistleblowing policy in both instances.

"I don't minimise the enormous step it is for a council employee to contact a councillor about internal matters and so to say I was taken aback by this course of events is a large understatement.

"It's clear to me that staff morale is not what it should be and we all need to work to address that.

"Indeed, staff turnover was very high last year and I know of more than one staff member who didn't leave for better terms and conditions.

"An Annual Council Plan Report needs to be more than a PR document. It needs to honestly reflect the challenges the council has and the corrective steps to be taken. I am afraid this report does not do that."

A spokesperson from West Lancashire Borough Council replied: "In October 2020, the Council adopted a Council Plan 2020-23 with a vision and priorities.

"The Council Plan Annual Report referred to is principally an annual review, in a reader-friendly format, of the achievements and progress against the priority areas of the Council Plan delivered for the benefit of residents and the borough, rather than a detailed report of all issues affecting the Authority.

"The Annual Report was noted at full Council and feedback also noted for future consideration. We can confirm there have been no whistleblowing reports."

Charity set to hold fun day themed on Manchester

A PARBOLD-BASED charity, which funds ground-breaking research into brain haemorrhage, is marking its 10th anniversary by hosting a spectacular Manchester-themed celebration event in October, called 'The Mancunian Way'.

The Natalie Kate Moss Trust was founded in 2012 following the devastating and sudden death of 26-year-old Natalie, from Parbold, and a graduate from the University of Manchester.

To mark its 10th anniversary, the Natalie Kate Moss Trust will host The Mancunian Way from 6.30pm on Saturday, October 8 beneath the wings of the world-famous Concorde in The Hangar at Manchester Airport's Concorde Conference Centre.

Hosted by Manchester-born broadcast journalist, Michelle Eagleton, and Manchester drag queen, Belinda Scandall, The Mancunian Way will celebrate everything that is Manchester, from Canal Street to China Town, the Hacienda to the Northern Quarter.

Entertainment will include Mr Wilson's street band, live Jazz bands from the Northern Quarter, as well as a live DJ and saxophonist. There will also be a unique performance from Manchester poet, Tony Walsh.

Fiona Moss, Natalie's sister and co-founder of the Natalie Kate Moss Trust, said: "We have achieved so much over the last ten years and so we wanted to do something a little different to celebrate that journey."

Deaf people urged to sign up for new BSL Advisory Board

Report by Henry James

DEAF members of the public who use British Sign Language have been urged to consider applying for a seat on the new British Sign Language (BSL) Advisory Board.

The Board will ensure deaf BSL users provide personal and expert advice to government on the key issues impacting the deaf community which need to be reflected in future guidance.

West Lancashire MP Rosie Cooper is asking people to consider applying for a seat on the Board after the Government launched the recruitment process.

The British Sign Language (BSL) Act 2022, which was presented to Parliament by MP Cooper and received royal assent in April, requires the government to produce guidance on how they should be promoting and protecting the use of BSL throughout their responsibilities.

Rosie Cooper MP said: "The British Sign Language Act has always been about including deaf people in the development of the Government's BSL policies. The Advisory Board is essential to this, and we need deaf people from all walks of life to be involved so that the guidance is as far reaching as possible."

The Board will be co-chaired by one external and one senior civil servant chair. The Board membership will comprise of at least 16 members plus the co-chairs.

For the Board members and the independent co-chair the main criteria for appointment will be a lived experience of BSL, alongside a willingness to work collaboratively in assisting Government to be more accessible.

MP Cooper added: "This isn't just open to campaigners and academics, but to any deaf people

MP Rosie Cooper wants people to apply for the new BSL Advisory Board that want to help shape an inclusive future for the deaf community.

"When the BSL Bill passed through Parliament, I said that my job was done and that it is now over to the deaf people to make the most of this opportunity."

"This BSL Board is the first chance for the deaf community to really tell the government what they are doing wrong, what could be better and what must change."

Olympic athlete opens new Aldi store in Tarleton

ALDI has opened a new branch in Tarleton, with Olympic medal winning athlete Anyika Onuora cutting the red ribbon.

Anyika, who won a bronze medal with Team GB at the 2016 Olympics in Rio de Janeiro, gave away complimentary bags of fresh fruit and vegetables to the first customers in the queue on Thursday, July 21.

The shop will employ 35 staff with vacancies currently available for store assistants.

Also in attendance was up-and-coming Taekwondo athlete, Adelaide Barnes.

Anyika went on to deliver a virtual assembly for pupils at Tarleton Holy Trinity Church of England Primary School on the benefits of eating healthy food and the importance of exercise and believing in yourself.

Anyika said: "It was an honour to officially open the store and welcome customers inside for the first time.

"Hopefully I've also managed to inspire the pupils to keep active and try different sports."

Aldi store staff are calling on local charities and food banks in Tarleton to register with Neighbourly, a community engagement platform that links businesses to charitable organisations in the community.

Local charities that register will be able to collect surplus food and perishable products, such as fruit, vegetables and baked goods, up to seven days a week.

Any charities in the area that would like to partner up with the new Aldi store should email aldi@neighbourly.com

Skem Councillor calls for General Election to end 'chaos and confusion'

SKELMERSDALE West County Cllr, Julie Gibson, has called on the Conservative Government to end the "chaos and confusion" in their ranks and is calling for a General Election.

Her call comes as more friction starts to emerge between Tory leadership candidates Rishi Sunak and Liz Truss.

Cllr Gibson, claimed: "People in West Lancs urgently need the help of a functioning national government. We are experiencing a cost-of-living crisis, people struggling to make ends meet, paying record prices for petrol and we have just experienced a national emergency of extreme weather conditions and yet there is no co-ordination or guidance from government nationally.

"We need a functioning government, and we clearly have not got one."

Cllr Gibson, continued: "It is unacceptable that it may take until September to find a replacement for the Prime Minister. At the moment we have a 'zombie' government and a cabinet that has key posts in departments that are not filled.

"Just a few weeks ago, the Conservative Government was telling us how important its 'Levelling Up' agenda is and there was a bill going through parliament to enshrine this.

"Two weeks later we have a new Secretary of State and talk that the entire process may be scrapped and started again.

"Local Government cannot sit around and wait for the whim of a government to decide on its next slogan. We need decisions, backed up by legislation that we can plan for now, not at some time in the future.

Cllr Gibson concluded: "The Conservatives are making the rules up as they go along to serve only themselves and not the people they are there to represent.

"In contrast, whilst the Conservatives fight amongst themselves Labour is ready, willing and capable to take the fight to the people of this country; what we need is a General Election."

Dashcam footage used to tackle driving offences

Report by Henry James

MORE than 1,400 dashcam clips have been sent to Lancashire Police since the end of last year, with officers able to 'take positive action' in 58% of the cases.

The force is continuing to tackle anti-social driving offences through Operation Snap, which is a streamlined and secure online portal where members of the public can upload digital footage of suspected traffic offences which they have witnessed.

By using a dashcam, (like the one pictured above, right) people can capture the moment driving offences are committed.

Since its launch towards the end of last year, more than 1,400 submissions have been made by the county's road users as Lancashire Police and the public work in tandem.

Using that footage, Lancashire Police say it has been able to take "positive action" in 58% of cases.

"This is an innovative approach to keeping our streets safe"

Potential evidence of dangerous driving, driving without due care and attention, careless driving, using a mobile phone when driving, not wearing a seatbelt, going through red lights and crossing solid white lines in the road, are just some of the instances recorded.

Superintendent Mark Morley of Lancashire Police's Tactical Operations Division, said: "This is an innovative approach to keeping our streets safe.

"Lancashire Police have worked very hard to set up Operation Snap to allow people to report offences of anti-social driving.

"There is new and more widely used dashcam technology available which can be used to support, educate and in some cases prosecute people who commit offences on our roads.

"This is utilising the eyes and ears of the public and we have seen a significant increase in reports from the public via Operation Snap.

"We appeal to everybody to drive safely and be considerate to other road users."

Andrew Snowden, Lancashire's Police and Crime Commissioner said: "I'm really pleased to see the successful rollout of Operation Snap continuing to make our roads safer and see those breaking the law and putting others in danger, rightly punished.

"We are seeing many dangerous drivers receiving sanctions from official warnings all the way through to court summons, thanks to submissions through Operation Snap.

"It shows the public want to see those driving at high speeds, anti-socially or carelessly with no regard for others stopped and challenged."

People can submit footage at <https://unitedkingdom1cpp-portal.digital-policing.co.uk/lancashire/appeal/public-dashcam-submission>

Free 'fix' for residents suffering TV interference due to improvements being made to mobile networks

IMPROVEMENTS being carried out to mobile networks in Skelmersdale, which will include boosting speed, performance and coverage, could cause interference to TV reception received through an aerial, residents have been warned.

Interference to TV sets could include intermittent sound, blocky images (pixelation) or loss of TV signal.

However, help is at hand to residents via free support from Restore TV - a programme run by Digital Mobile Spectrum Limited which is owned by UK mobile operators EE, Virgin Media O2, Three and Vodafone.

Restore TV's role is to ensure people can continue to enjoy free-to-view TV when mobile services are upgraded in their area.

The programme reports to the Coexistence Technical Working Group chaired by Ofcom, representing consumers, broadcasters and mobile operators.

Restore TV offers additional support for people who are 75 years of age or older, are registered blind or partially sighted or receive certain benefits.

Ben Roome, CEO of Restore TV, said: "We can send a Restore TV filter, free of charge, for you to fit between your aerial lead and TV or set-top box to remove mobile signals and allow you to watch free to view TV as normal.

"Full instructions are included, and we can provide further advice online and by phone if needed." Cable and satellite TV, such as Sky or Virgin, are not affected. However, viewers with these services, who also watch free-to-view TV through an aerial, can receive a free Restore TV filter.

For residents in flats or communal buildings, Restore TV provides landlords or property managers with support to resolve the problem.

Any viewers who experience new interference to free-to-view TV should contact Restore TV on 0808 13 13 800 (free from landlines and mobiles) or for more information visit restoretv.uk

Share your views on Telecare service

RESIDENTS who use a service which helps them live safely and independently at home, are invited to share their views on proposed charges to cover the increasing costs of running it.

A six-week consultation, which began on Tuesday, July 19, gives people the opportunity to have their say on 'Telecare' either online or by returning a written questionnaire, which is being sent to everyone who has signed-up to the service.

Carers, people who work in social care and the public, can also have their say. The Lancashire County Council service is run by Progress Lifeline.

County Councillor Graham Gooch, cabinet member for adult social care, said: "Currently, Lancashire County Council is the only authority in the North West that does not charge any residents for a telecare and mobile response service. The average charge for this service in other local authorities is £5.51."

The proposals are to introduce three levels of charges.

The deadline for people to have their say is 5pm on Friday, September 2.

Popular primary school worker thanked for 22 years of devoted service

Report by Henry James

THE site supervisor at Moorside Community Primary Academy in Skelmersdale has retired after 22 years service.

Gillian Murray's long-service at the school in Back Lane was recognised on Thursday, July 21 and staff presented her with gifts at a special assembly attended by pupils and her family.

The 71-year-old, who lives in Up Holland, started work at Moorside in May 2000.

Her duties included opening up the school in the morning; cleaning and locking up at night.

Moorside headteacher Richard Davis, said: "Gill will be a huge loss to our school community. She has worked with five headteachers, five business managers, more than 1,500 children and more than 3,000 parents.

"Our school community will not be the same without her laugh, her hard work and her smile. Here's to a long and happy retirement!"

Gillian said: "I will be sad to go and will miss everyone. This school has been a part of my life.

"I really enjoyed working at the school, but there comes a time in your life when you hit retirement."

Gillian Murray (seated left) is shown with her family following her retirement

We need to know more landfill site health effects

I am writing to you express concern over the Whitemoss landfill site.

As noted in your previous articles residents are concerned; understandably so.

I feel that our MP Rosie Cooper does not do enough to represent the people of Skelmersdale.

From my experience it seems that there have always been feelings of contempt towards the residents of Skelmersdale.

This is evident in the siting of a hazardous waste dump on our doorstep.

Are long term health effects monitored?

We are completely left in the dark, yet there have been leaks there.

Are inspections made by independent bodies?

Ultimately, we do not know the long term adverse health effects this landfill site could cause.

This is saddening as previously mentioned, we are treated with contempt.

So many promises, yet no delivery.

We do not deserve this.

This landfill, in my opinion should be closed at once and constant pressure for such action from our MP and councillors be applied to the relevant people.

Name supplied, Skelmersdale

I remember when our area was kept spotlessly clean

Some weeks ago I wrote including a photo of the overgrown hedgerows and abundance of cutter weeds on Springfield Road in Aughton.

Since then, a cutter clearance vehicle has been along so it's a little better.

However the overgrown hedgerows are worse.

You need to walk into the road to avoid them giving you a good poking in the eye

The cutter weeds, who I am on first name terms with, are still there and now some growing out of the pavement joining the overgrown hedgerows, becoming a family!

West Lancashire Council has a duty of care to their residents.

They are failing in their duty on this occasion.

I am old enough to remember when there was a 'Clerk to the Council' and you knew who it was as their name was on all council vehicles.

The councillors were local businessmen, bank managers and shop keepers who voluntarily gave their expertise and management skills as a way of giving something back to the community.

The area was spotless, and was one reason to move into the area.

Now we have a chief executive salaried at more than £100,000 annually, along with councillors who get paid plus expenses.

Not so much market forces, rather in the nature of a warm personal gesture by the individual to themselves!

David Palin, Aughton

How lucky we are to have the NHS

Two months ago my wife sadly died having suffered with a very rare form of vasculitis for the last 24 years.

During the 24 years the care and treatment she received from the National Health Service has been wonderful.

The Royal Hospital and the Aintree Hospital in Liverpool together with the Southport and Ormskirk Hospital have all been involved in the first class care she received.

From life support in intensive care units, spells in kidney dialysis units, care in the wards and the many outpatient clinics she attended all contributed to her care which was beyond the call of duty.

The ambulance service was fantastic when called in emergencies.

How lucky we are to have a National Health Service and more importantly the people who work in it.

I think they are magnificent and God bless them all.

John Howard, Banks

Hedgehogs need a bit of help in summer

In the heat of summer our hedgehogs need a bit of extra help and consideration.

So please consider putting out a bowl of water in your garden and remember to check under shrubs and borders thoroughly before operating mowing and strimming equipment.

Hedgehogs can swim but it's important to have an escape ramp in any ponds to ensure they can get out.

And of course, if you see a hedgehog out in the daytime do seek veterinary advice.

If we all do our bit to ensure our gardens remain hedgehog friendly, accessible and interconnected (so they can move around to find food, water, shelter, mates) and keep them hydrated we may well be able to halt their declining numbers.

It's their neighbourhood too so it's the least we can do!

Gary, Crosby

Parking fine due to faulty machine

I have received a parking fine from July 5 from the Aldi car park in Ormskirk.

I tried to pay for extra time only to find the machine faulty, and the ticket would not print out.

I was wondering if anyone else has had this happen to them and received a notice.

There was no attendant at the site and I tried more than once to purchase a ticket.

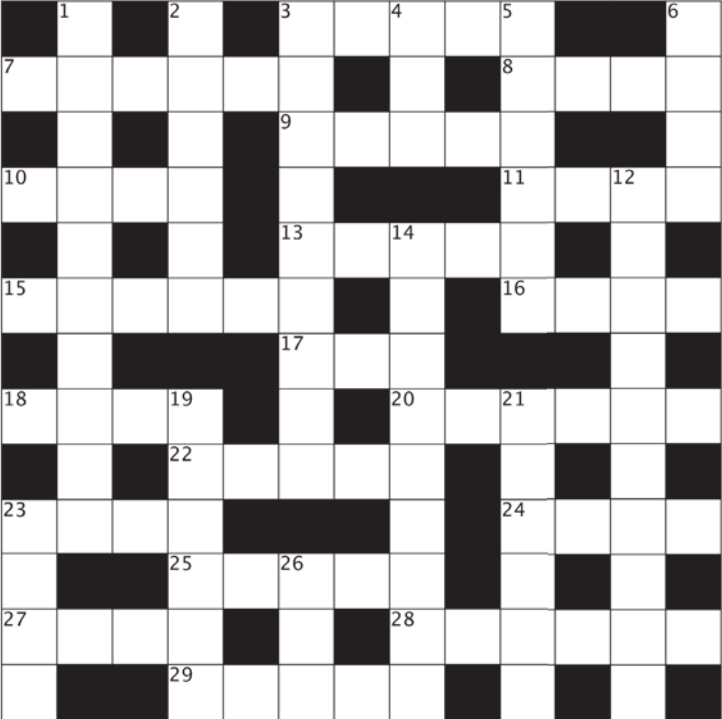

On the first occasion I was even treated to an extra £2.50 with my own fee.

It would be good if anyone has had this problem at anytime and could let me know.

David Moores

Tributes paid to former Reds chairman David Moores

TRIBUTES have been paid to former Liverpool FC chairman and owner, David Moores, after his death was announced last week.

Mr Moores, who lived in Halsall, served as chairman for 16 years from 1991 and became honorary life president of the club after selling his majority stake in 2007.

He died at the age of 76 on Friday, July 22, just weeks after his wife of 39 years, Marge, passed away. A spokesperson for Liverpool FC said: "The thoughts of everyone at Liverpool FC are with David's family and friends at this difficult time."

Sir Kenny Dalglish described him as "a loyal Liverpool fan whose dream came true when he was appointed chairman", and Jamie Carragher said "he will be sorely missed."

The Moores family held a majority stake in Liverpool FC for more than half a century and David took over at the club he loved in September 1991.

Mr Moores saw the Reds win ten major honours throughout his 16-year tenure, including the Champions League in 2005.

He controversially sold the club in 2007 to American investors Tom Hicks and George Gillett.

In a letter to The Times in May 2010, Mr Moores admitted that he "hugely regretted" selling Liverpool FC to the American duo.

Primary School holds first ever careers fair

Report by Henry James

A TOTAL of 15 different businesses, professions and sectors attended Burscough Village Primary School's first careers fair.

More than 90 children from Year 5 and Year 6 Burscough Village and Year 6 pupils from Lordsgate Primary School took part in the event on Friday, July 13.

They were given the opportunity to talk to the businesses and ask questions about their professions.

Youngsters had also prepared a range of questions, which included qualifications, job satisfaction and salary!

The children grasped hands on experiences, including science experiments, CAD drawings, retail design software and CPR training. A number of businesses were giving away freebies which proved popular with the children.

Miss Anna Smith, headteacher, said: "Our

school mission statement is 'Striving for the future' and we wanted to provide our children with this invaluable experience to be inspired by a wide range of careers."

She went on to add: "We want the children to be passionate about their futures and have a purpose for their learning. They can be whatever they want to be!"

The careers fair was supported by a range of businesses and organisations, including: ThermoScientific; St John Ambulance; Firesprite; Jockey Club;

Anwyl Homes; Sofology; Just H Architects; Tesco; Lancashire Police; Twenty Four Seven; Liverpool University Hospitals NHS Foundation Trust; Burscough Priory Academy; Burscough Library; West Lancs College; and West Lancs Sports Partnership.

Campaigners take part in NHS demo

CAMPAIGNERS from West Lancashire joined the recent NHS Action Day in a bid to 'keep private companies out of the NHS'.

They are against the new Integrated Care Systems, which have been created as part of a wide-scale reorganisation the NHS.

Every ICS will be overseen by an Integrated Care Board but campaigners say they don't want private companies to sit on these boards.

As part of this awareness campaign, there was a street stall at

The Nye Bevan Pool in Skelmersdale.

The group had a contingent from the Unite Community Lancashire Branch, from the Save Ormskirk and Southport Hospital Group, together with concerned local people.

Skem score six to win first trophy of season

Charnock Richard 0
Skelmersdale United 6

SKELMERSDALE United picked up their first silverware of the season after thrashing Charnock Richard in the Reusch Cup Final, writes Kevin Panther.

It didn't take long for Skem to open the scoring, when after two minutes new signing Jordan Southworth found the back of the net.

Josh Nicholson put United two ahead on 38 minutes and the first half domination continued when Elliott Morris tapped in for United's third right on half time.

Karl Clair made it 4-0 with a free-kick before captain for the day Sam Sheen headed home for Skem's fifth.

Jamie Nicholson sealed the comprehensive vic-

Skem players and coaches with the trophy. Picture by Kate Maggie tory when he added United's sixth on 75 minutes. Skem are at the Community Ground this Saturday for a friendly when they take on Welsh Premier side Flint Town for a 3pm kick off.

Meanwhile, Burscough kick off the new season this Saturday when they travel to Prestwich Heys.

New manager Leon Mike and his side then host Longridge Town on Tuesday, August 2.

Ormskirk stay third after 61-run win

ORMSKIRK beat New Brighton by 61 runs on Saturday to stay in third place in the Liverpool Competition Premier Division.

George Politis (35) and Alex Rankin (47) put on an 80 run opening partnership for Ormskirk, with George Lavelle also scoring 47 while Sam Marsh (27) added some useful late order runs in a total of 200-9 declared in 45.1 overs with David While claiming five wickets. Scott Lees then dismissed New Brighton opener Owais Shah for a duck but there was then a 51 run partnership between Adam Neal and David While before Neal was out caught to Zahir Shehzad for 34 and Tom Hartley bowled While for 22.

Sebastian J Botes made a half century (51) before being out caught to Shehzad.

Shehzad went on to claim four wickets and Hartley three, with Sam Marsh taking two as New Brighton were all out for 139 in the 38th over.

Elsewhere in the Premier Division leaders Wallasey beat Newton-le-Willows by 36 runs, second placed Northern beat Southport & Birkdale by 98 runs. Birkenhead Park beat Orrell Red Triangle by 4 wickets, Formby drew with Leigh and Wigan drew with Rainhill.

IN MEMORIAM

RIGBY JAMIE 'OUR JAY'

27th July 2004
tragically taken from us

We didn't know that day would be our last. 18 very long years have passed with tears and broken hearts. God needed another angel Jay, the one he chose was you. The big blue eyes, the endless smile we now don't get to see. So as we cry go forward Jay and fly that extra mile and do what you were meant to do and make everybody smile. As we look up to the sky it's your smile we will see, for in a sky full of stars there is always one that shines a little brighter.

You will be in our broken hearts always.

Always loved.
Always missed.
See you in Heaven Jay,

Mum and Dad, Sister Danielle and Liam, reunited with big Brother Stuart and little mate Taz.

Sending Heavenly kisses from Ava, Emily, Iyla Beau, Harper Jai, Poppy Jai and Maggie May

Champion MOTORS

The Seven is a survivor unlike any other!

Our motors man took part in the Austin Seven centenary celebrations last weekend

FOR a car that's fewer than ten feet long and a shade over five feet wide, the Austin Seven is remarkably big.

Last week, the plucky motoring pioneer celebrated its centenary with a five-day rally down in Gloucestershire that brought 1,000 of them together. Having been to similarly sized shindigs for Mazda MX-5s and old Citroëns before, I know that mustering a four-figure turnout for any type or model of car is a big achievement, but this was all for a model that went out of production before the Second World War. Its outing as a brand-new motor was so long ago even my grandmother won't remember it. Yet I can't think of any car – and that includes the Mini, the Morris Minor, and the Ford Cortina – that's done so much to put Britain on wheels.

The Seven wasn't the first mass-produced car (and if we're being pedantic about it, the Ford Model T wasn't either), but it was the first here that was sufficiently cheap and abundant enough to persuade petrolheads that it was four wheels, not motorcycles with sidecars, that were the future. It launched the careers of Lotus founder Colin Chapman, Mini designer Sir Alec Issigonis and race ace Bruce McLaren. BMW based its earliest four-wheel offering, the Dixi, on the Seven, and so did Swallow Sidecars, which a few decades and various models, became Jaguar. So the iPace, McLaren 720S, Lotus Emira, BMW iX and every current MINI all owe at least part of their existence to the Seven.

And the Seven itself, for a car that was officially killed off 83 years ago, keeps on going. It is, thanks to a small army of specialists dedicated to restoring and making bits for the cars, a regular fixture in classic race and rally events to this day, and it isn't people old enough to have owned them from new enjoying them either. There are plenty of twentysomethings, who'd otherwise be spending their weekends on TikTok, happily sliding about most Sundays in Sevens at Vintage Sports Car Club Events. There are people who polish Sevens within an inch of their lives and take them to shows, and those who ship them off to South America and go exploring with them. Because the Seven faded from popular memory long before most of us were born, it's sort of become this blank canvas that appeals to everyone, of all ages and walks of life.

Including those on a budget. You'd be forgiven for thinking that all classic cars have rocketed in value and are hand-crafted from unobtainium, but a Seven can be up and running and in your garage for...about five grand, which is secondhand Fiesta money. It's also, because so many of them have survived, just about the only pre-war car that regularly pops up in the classified ads, so it won't take long to find a good one, and you can still get bits for them.

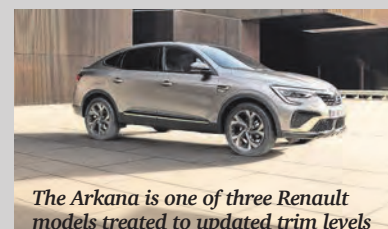

The Seven is a survivor unlike any other. Happy birthday, old chum!

David Simister, editor of Classic Car Weekly

The new Citroën C5 X is available to order now

RENAULT has rolled out a series of updates and a new trim level for three of its models. The Clio, Captur and Arkana are now all available in E-tech form, which in the case of the Clio and Captur replaces the RS Line trim level and in all three models introduces a more generous amount of trim, including a dark roof lining, gold detail stitching and aluminium pedals. Prices for the E-tech Clio start at £23,795, £28,395 for the Captur and £27,995 for the Arkana.

The Arkana is one of three Renault models treated to updated trim levels
